

He's a Chiweenie and he is only 6 months to a year old and he only weighs about 6 lbs. His name is Cooper and he was surrendered by his first owners, the only family he had ever know. They packed him up and took him to the shelter and never said goodbye or looked back at him. Cooper thought he was going to a doggy day care and waited and waited for his owners to come back, but they never did. He was put in a cold cage and left to figure things out on his own. Cooper sent out rescue vibes and Low Riders heard him. He is coming to Colorado May 10th and will be ready to start his search for a new home. He is looking for a fun loving family that loves adventures. He would love to see and smell everything the Great Rockies have to offer. He would not mind going to a couple of breweries also. He is good with other dogs and is a fast learner. He promises to be loving, loyal and lots of fun. If you would like to meet Cooper please fill out an application at
