

Jaba is a sweet little 13 lb. Terrier Blend who is looking for a new home. He is about 4 months old and was dumped at a high kill shelter in Texas. He was scared and all alone and was going to be euthanized. Puppies can be demanding at times, but they can also give so much joy and happiness for the rest of their lives. Little Jaba was not given the chance to give love and happiness, he was seen as a annoyance and therefore easily gotten rid of. Jaba loves other dogs, big and small, he loves to play outside and could care less about cats. He has a huge heart and will snuggle with you all day. He is a loyal companion who will stick by your side forever. He would love the chance to hike the mountains, play in the rivers, get muddy, ack goofy, and be a great friend. Jaba's adoption fee is $325.00 - he is up to date on all his puppy vaccinations and chipped.
