

Meg is a beautiful 3 year old, 40 lb Staffy Blend looking for a home. She was rescued from a high kill shelter in Texas. She is currently in foster in Colorado waiting for a new family. She is truly a sweet dog that loves to climb in your lap and snuggle. She is truly a lover dog and needs that kind of love returned. She would be a perfect dog for a couple or single person that doesn't have any other pets. She would also be best in a home without small children, sometimes she doesn't know how big she is. She doesn't do well with other dogs which is the main reason her current foster can not keep her. Her foster loves her to death and knows she will be amazing for a single person or couple with no children. She is hoping to find her family for the holidays. She would make a great hiking buddy or even a long walking buddy. If you would like to meet sweet Meg please fill out an application at
