

Snickers is a spunky little 11 lb, 2 year old Chiweenie looking for some adventure in Colorado. He was rescued from a high kill shelter in Texas where he was dumped with his 4 boys. Owner had way too many dogs and was told he needed to find a place for them to go. Soooo the owner just put them in a box and took them to the nearest shelter and told them to put them all to sleep. Low Riders was asked to help them get out of Texas. Snickers has been here for a while, he was a bit shy when he got here, but has found that humans can be friendly and loving. Snickers needs a quiet home and probably only one other dog, if any. He spends most of his day sunning himself in the backyard. He is such a sweetheart and loves to be held or sitting in your lap. He will need patience and love while he is learning to trust you. Treats are definitely the way to his heart. Snickers promises to bring years of love and laughter to his new home. He just needs to find the right family that will come and meet him!! He hopes there is someone out there that will open their home and hearts to him.
