

There is a new song out by a Colorado Native Band - One Republic. The song is "Wanted" and it's Suzie Q's new theme song!! She is a sweet little 3 year old, 13 lb Chiweenie who was found in a shed sitting on an old toilet - pregnant and all alone. Her former family abandoned her when they moved!! She was already pregnant. She was on her own for about 3 weeks until a rescue angel found her. It took a couple of days to gain her trust to get her out of the shed, but she trusted and was able to have her babies in a nice, warm foster home. She came to Colorado from Texas and being moved again with her puppies, she had to learn to trust again. It took her some time, but she trusted and began to love. Suzie Q was a great mom and now, like the song, all she wants is to be wanted by someone. She has soooo much love to give, I don't think she has ever given love to humans or been given love by humans. She looks to her humans for comfort, love and patience. I have watched her grow from a super timid little girl protecting her babies to a beautiful soul who wants to love life and experience it to the fullest. She has some things to learn, but they are minimal to what she has to give. She hopes there is a family out there that will want her and love her forever.
