

Tilli is a little 2 year old Chiweenie rescued from Texas. She only weighs about 10 lbs. Poor little girl is without a home and family. She loves people and gets along with other dogs. She is sweet and snuggly and full of love. Tilli was out in the cold when she was found, she was shivering and very scared. Animal control picked her up and took her to the shelter and there she became one of their favorites. Workers could not say a bad thing about her and hoped that she was only lost and that her family would come and claim her. When that did not happen and it looked like her time was up, they reached out to rescues to help her. Low Riders saw her and is transporting her to Colorado.
