

This is Zoey and she is 29 lbs and 6 months. While we are a small dog rescue every once in a while we rescue a dog that has absolutely zero time left. This is Zoey. She had no time left at the facility she was left at. A partner rescue in Texas found her and gave her a second chance. We think she might be part Schnauzer, but no idea what her other part is. She is sweet and very kind and in desperate need of a second chance. We know there is a family out there that is looking for the right dog to add to their family and we believe Zoey is that pooch. She likes other dogs and is very thankful for her rescue - her tail is always wagging. Zoey would love to find a family that will take her for long walks and play with her in the yard. She is an absolute doll and did not deserve to be put down just because there was not enough room at the inn. Zoey is hoping to fill her scheduler with lots of meets or maybe just the perfect one.
